

Baettig Selección de Parcelas “Los Primos”
Pinot Noir 2019
D.O. Traiguén

Vintage 2019:

Cold spring and warm summer season that delivered wines of great depth and complexity.

Rainy and cold spring resulted in somewhat late budding and flowering, while yield was affected by October frosts. However, conditions changed abruptly in January, registering a dry and hot summer, which allowed the grapes to advance in their maturity to be harvested during the first two weeks of April, delivering wine of great concentration, ageing potential and fruit intensity. An excellent vintage.

Tasting Notes:

Cherry red in color, the nose is elegant and complex with aromas of fresh red fruit, such as cherry, rosehip and wild strawberry, subtle floral aromas of violet, lavender and rose, and subtle notes of orange peel and moist earth. On the palate it is tense, linear, and deep, with juicy acidity and notes of pomegranate, graphite and chalk. The firm but extremely fine tannins envelop the palate with a polished and persistent texture.

A complex and deep wine. The tight finish and great structure make it ideal for cellaring.
